We recognise that all school personnel are vulnerable to accusations of abuse because of their daily contact with children. We acknowledge that dealing with allegations against school personnel is a stressful, demanding, complex and delicate process for all involved. But we will ensure that all allegations will be taken seriously and investigated immediately and impartially in order to provide instant and effective protection for the child concerned and to provide support for the person who is the subject of the allegation.

We wish to create a culture of openness that will allow children and school personnel to make truthful reports of any inappropriate behaviour and in the knowledge that all allegations will be taken seriously.

We encourage all school personnel to protect themselves against false accusations by treating all children with dignity and respect, and to ensure that they never work alone with a child, always maintaining a safe and appropriate distance, avoiding physical contact and being cautious when dealing with sensitive moments.

We must ensure that school personnel do not suffer unnecessarily when false allegations have been made against them and that their careers are not wrecked.

We believe it is our duty to establish the reason why pupils make false allegations against school personnel and to put into place support procedures to help pupils overcome any problems they may have.

We understand that we have a legal duty once an allegation has been to undertake a full investigation, to record the decisions reached and action taken.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.
